A full color profile of 50 of the Cotswolds finest gardens. TV presenter and writer Tony Russell presents his personal guide to the 50 finest Gardens in the Cotswolds. The gardens are all open to the general public and are here given evocative and practical descriptions taking in each ones history and the huge array of plants, flowers and trees available to view regardless of the season. He accompanies each entry with magnificent color pictures showing off each garden in all its glory. This stunning book which is written by the man that also compiles the annual publication Gardens to Visit will be a must for anyone interested in the glorious Cotswolds, wherever they live.

About the Author Tony Russell was Head Forester at Westonbirt Arboretum for thirteen years until 2002, before leaving to become a BBC garden writer and broadcaster. He has presented several TV series including Roots and Shoots, Garden Trail and Britains Great Trees. He is a regular on BBC Radio 4's Gardeners Question Time and has written eight books, including his Finest Garden Series for Amberley.
