In muddling through the mess and studying the habits of successful people, she has learned how to put her home, and life, back in order. Now she's sharing all those invaluable life lessons and practical tips with you so you can create cleaning routines you can stick to, enjoy a clutter free home (for good), get organized and stay organized, and even decorate like a pro. Creating Success At Home is divided into 5 parts, each one containing short, easy-to-read chapters that delve into each problem area with practical solutions and resources, including FREE access to Mrs. Hines' personal resource library to promote life changing habits and mindful living. Once you implement these changes, your home will run (almost) on autopilot, freeing you to chase your dreams and accomplish your goals. But Creating Success At Home is more than book full of tips. It includes relatable stories that will have you either laughing, crying or saying, "me too!"
