Architectural detailing makes a design stand apart from all other buildings, and also makes an architect truly outstanding. Each volume has become a study of the emerging trends in architectural detailing, with a strong focus on sustaining the environment, green architecture and many aspects of cross-cultural design. Featuring the world's most highly acclaimed architects, this book presents many the world's most recently completed and influential building designs for corporate, government, transport and infrastructure, public spaces, landscape architecture, hospitality, residential, sports and leisure, convention and conference, art and exhibition. Architects featured are from Europe, the United States, Australia, Asia and South America.
